The Sign of the Prophet Jonah

In the 26th week of Yahshua's ministry, Matthew 12:22-23 tells of Him healing a blind and dumb man who was possessed by a demon. The people understood that this was a Messianic sign for they were amazed and began to ask, "Is not this the Son of David?" From the Scriptural Branch prophecies, it was well known that the Son of David would be Messiah (Jeremiah 23:5; 33:15). So many people thought that Yahshua might be the Promised One that the Pharisees were motivated to challenge Yahshua. They demanded that He prove He was the Messiah.

"...Master, we would see a sign from thee. But He answered and said unto them, An evil and adulterous generation seeketh after a Sign; and there shall no Sign be given to it, but the Sign of the prophet Jonas: For as Jonas was three days and three nights in the whale's belly; so shall the Son of man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth." Matthew 12:38-40

Jonah's Prophecy & the SIGN of the True MESSIAH

Matthew 16:1-4—“...A wicked and adulterous generation seeks after a sign, but no sign shall be given unto it, but (except for) the Sign of the prophet Jonah...”

As was mentioned in our April-June, 2018 magazine, Messiah told us that before the End of the World, the Gospel of the Kingdom would first be preached in all the world for a witness (Matthew 24:14). Clearly, the Gospel is vitally important. It is a life-changing Message that every child of Yahweh needs to know and follow. But this is not as simple as it sounds. The enemy has distorted and paganized the Gospel, replacing it with elements, beliefs, and teachings which come from Phrygian sun-worship. One of the most devastating ways the Gospel has been paganized is that the Sign of Messiah's Authenticity has been lost. This Sign, which authenticates the true Messiah and distinguishes Him from the Phrygian sun-god, is the Jonah prophecy. Yahshua gave the Jonah prophecy regarding His Crucifixion as the one Sign that He was the authentic Messiah, sent from Heaven.

Certainly, we know that there are numerous Bible prophecies about the Messiah—all of which were fulfilled by Him. And these fulfilled prophecies are all powerful evidences that Yahshua was indeed the Messiah. But, of them all, Yahshua Himself said that only one Sign would stand as a witness to an “evil” and spiritually “adulterous” generation: the Sign of Jonah. Just as Jonah was in the whale's belly for 3 days and 3 nights, so the true Messiah would be in the grave for 3 days and 3 nights. But, sadly Christianity today has accepted the Phrygian crucifixion timing instead, losing sight of the true. (Continued..)

The Phrygian Crucifixion Wasn't 3 Days and 3 Nights!

Day/Night	Mon	Tues	Wed	Thur	Friday	Sabbath	Sunday
 Day Time	Tammuz, the false “Messiah” of ancient Babylon was gored to death by a wild boar (which is why ham is served on Easter Sunday). He was mourned for 40 days (for he died at 40 years old)—Ezekiel 8:14. Then, Tammuz's body was placed on a cross, blasphemously mimicking the future Messiah's Crucifixion.				Tammuz is on the cross	Day #1: Tammuz is in the grave.	Tammuz is raised with the sunrise.
					Tammuz was only in the grave for one full day... Not 3 days!
 Night Time	Tammuz's body was taken down from the cross and he was buried just prior to sunset on “good” Friday. When the sun set, the pagan sun-god (Dagon, or Nimrod) was said to leave the sky. Taking the form of a fish he supposedly entered the sea. This is why fish is eaten on Good Friday.				Night #1: Tammuz is buried.	Night #2: Tammuz is in the grave.

The Most Repeated Time-Prophecy in the Bible!

When a matter is of importance, and in order to demonstrate that it is from God, Yahweh “establishes” it (verifies and confirms) in the “mouth” of 2-3 witnesses (Deut. 17:6; 19:15; Genesis 41:32). If there are more than 2-3 Scriptural witnesses repeating a prophecy, it is obviously important. But the three-day prophecy of Jonah, regarding Christ's death and length of entombment is the most-repeated time-prophecy in all the Bible! Why does Scripture emphasize this prophecy with such an extreme number of mentionings? The three days and three nights prophecy is the Sign of Messiah's Authenticity!

This important prophecy is repeated in the following Scriptures:

- John 2:19 – “After Three days”
- Matthew 12:38-40 – “Sign of Jonah”
- Matthew 16:21 - “Raised the 3rd Day”
- Matthew 17:22-23 - “Raised the 3rd Day”
- Mark 8:31 – “After 3 days rise again”
- Mark 9:31 – “Rise the 3rd day”
- Mark 10:33-34 – “Rise the 3rd Day”
- Luke 9:22 – “Rise the 3rd Day”
- Luke 18:31-34 – “Rise the 3rd Day”

The Jonah Prophecy is Repeated 9x!

Three days and three nights is 72 hours. Yet most of the Christian world believes that Christ died on “Good Friday”, was buried at just about sunset and Resurrected on “Easter Sunday” at the sunrise.

This Fails the Time Test!

Instead of being crucified on “Good Friday”, which was Tammuz’s counterfeited, the prophet Daniel foretold that the true Messiah would be slain in “the midst” (middle) of the week.

“And after threescore and two weeks shall Messiah be cut off (be “destroyed” or slain)... And He shall confirm the Covenant with many for one week: and in the midst of the week He shall cause the sacrifice and the oblation to cease...” Daniel 9:26-27

Yahshua died precisely at the time foretold by the prophet. His death was after 62 weeks (threescore and two); in the middle of the 63rd week of His Ministry. And when He died, all the need for animal sacrifices came to end. Thus, His death caused the sacrifices and oblations to cease (Hebrews 10:1-10). Additionally, by dying on Passover, which fell in the middle of the week on the year of His death, Yahshua perfectly fulfilled the Messianic prophecy of Daniel 9 and the prophesy of Jonah, authenticating Him as our one and only Messiah.

To prove this, we need to start by determining the year in which Christ died. The year of the Crucifixion is a hotly debated topic. Some say Yahshua died in 30 AD. Some say 31 AD. Others believe Christ died in 33 AD. And still others teach that the Crucifixion happened in 28 AD. With so much controversy on the subject, how can we hope to nail down the actual Crucifixion year? Can it be done? Yes! There is actually a great deal of evidence—both Scriptural and historical—to establish the correct year of Messiah’s Death.

Let’s begin by establishing the year of Yahshua’s baptism, which marked the beginning of His ministry. In Luke 3:1, we find that John began baptising (and Yahshua was baptized in) the fifteenth year of Tiberius’ reign. According to Roman records, Tiberius reigned with the aging Augustus as co-regent beginning in the year 12 AD. He became the sole regent in 14 AD, but his fifteenth year is reckoned from 12 AD and was 27 AD (12 AD + 15 = 27 AD).

The year of Augustus’ death is firmly fixed and confirmed by a Lunar eclipse recorded by the Roman historian Tacitus (Annals, Book 1, paragraph 28). However, Edward Gibbon noted that prior to his death Augustus “dictated a law by which the future prince [in this case Tiberius] was invested with an authority equal to his own, over the provinces and the armies.” (Decline and Fall of the Roman Empire, vol 1, p. 30)

Within “the provinces” Tiberius had equal standing and authority with Caesar Augustus even while Augustus was still alive. Historian Will Durant points out that “all Rome which hated [Tiberius] for his stern puritanism, resigned itself to the fact that though Augustus was still prince, Tiberius had begun to rule.” (Durant, The Story of Civilization, vol. 3 “Caesar and Christ” p. 231)

Thus the reign of Tiberius is dated (not from his sole reign at the death of Augustus) but from the beginning of his joint reign (two years prior to his death in A.D. 12) when Tiberius was given legal equality with Augustus. The 15th year if Tiberius would then correspond to A.D. 27.

There are additional, historical check-points as well. All of the following details make 27 AD the conclusive year in which Messiah was baptized:

- According to Luke 3:1, John the Baptist began his ministry in the 15th year of Tiberius Caesar’s reign (27 AD).
- According to Luke 3:1, both Herod and Philip were reigning. 27 AD was the 28th year of the reigns of Herod in Galilee and Philip in Ituraea after the passing of their father, Herod the Great, soon after the lunar eclipse of Jan. 10, 1 BC.
- *According to John 2:13, Yahshua’s baptism and beginning of His ministry happened in the 46th year of the Temple reconstruction project. 27 AD was the 46th year of the Temple’s reconstruction, since Herod the Great began the project in 19 BC (www.bible-history.com)*
- *According to Luke 3:23, Yahshua was “not yet 30 years of age”, which is better translated as “nearing” the age of 30 when He was baptized. This also checks out with 27 AD, counting from His birth year of 3 B.C.*

With all of this compelling evidence, we can confirm that 27 AD was the year of Yahshua’s baptism and the beginning of His Ministry. But how long was Yahshua’s ministry? Today, most Christians believe Christ ministered for three and a half years. But, as we explained in the prior magazine, both Scripture and history support a one year ministry of Messiah. The year of Christ’s ministry began when John the Baptist proclaimed Yahshua as the “Lamb of God” that had come to take away the sins of the world. Christ’s earthly ministry, as the Lamb of God, ended with the outpouring of the Holy Spirit—the baptism by Fire.

“I am come to send Fire on the earth... But I have a baptism to be baptized with; and how am I straitened (greatly I am compelled) till it be accomplished!” Luke 12:49-50

In fact, from the moment of Christ’s baptism in water to the Pentecost baptism by Fire was precisely 490 days. This was in fulfillment of Daniel’s Messianic Prophecy. There are five evidences which show Messiah’s ministry as being a little over one year. As this was addressed in our April-June, 2018 magazine, we will not present this evidence further. But, as these five evidences show, Yahshua’s one-year ministry began in 27 AD and concluded with His Crucifixion and Pentecost of 28 AD. And Passover in the year 28 AD fell on a Wednesday, counting from the Abib New Moon. This means that Christ died on a Wednesday (in modern terms), which fulfilled the Jonah Prophecy and the Daniel 9 requirement that He would die “in the midst (middle) of the week”.

But, because Yahshua was to die at the precise moment when the Passover lamb was to be slain, He could not eat the Passover with His disciples at the usual time (the eve of the 15 th day).  Yahshua would die at the time when the Passover lamb was to be slain on the following day (Passover). The lamb was slain at the 9 th hour, which was when Christ died. John 19:39-40 says that Nicodemus had the burial spices already mixed. The fact that the men wrapped Yahshua's Body shows that they had all the needed spices. He was buried before sunset. The Jews would have all eaten the Passover. on this night.	Night #2: Yahshua is in the Grave When the sun set on the first Sabbath of Unleavened Bread, even though the Feast of Unleavened Bread continued, it was no longer the Sabbath. 		Resurrection

In fulfillment of Daniel’s prophecy and the Jonah prophecy, Messiah died in the middle of the week, rather than on “Good Friday”, which was Tammuz’s day. Unlike Tammuz, Yahshua, the authentic Messiah was three days and three nights in the tomb. In fact, no part of Messiah’s life, ministry, or death served as validation for any of the pagan days or forms of worship. And that includes the timing of His Resurrection as well.

Easter sunrise is the timing for the Phrygian resurrection, which is the counterfeit. But the reason Christians have come to believe that Messiah resurrected on Sunday morning is that we all know He was fulfilling First Fruits. According to Scripture, the day of First Fruits always falls on the “morrow after” the Seventh-day “Sabbath” (Leviticus 23:9-12), which falls during the week of Unleavened Bread. Since Yahshua raised from the dead as the “first fruits” of the dead (1 Corinthians 15:20), we assume that He must have resurrected on Sunday, which is the morrow after (day after) the Seventh-day Sabbath.

But if the Resurrection had taken place on Sunday morning, once again the Jonah prophecy which authenticates Messiah would have been broken. For a Sunday morning Resurrection places Yahshua in the tomb for four nights instead of three. But the question arises: How could Yahshua fulfill First Fruits (which we know He did) if He did not resurrect on Sunday, which was the day of First Fruits?

Actually, First Fruits was not only a day, it was also a series of events. And the series of events which fulfill First Fruits did not all take place on the day of First Fruits.

The events of First Fruits took place in stages, over several days. In fact the first event of First Fruits actually happened on the day of Passover.

First Fruits Stage 1: Marking the Grain

On the day of Passover, the high priest would go out to inspect the barley. He was looking to find the early grain, which was ready for harvest. This early grain would be marked by putting a cord around it on the day of Passover, but it would not be harvested on this day. This marked grain was now set apart as the First Fruits grain.

In 28 AD, Heaven marked the First Fruits grain, which was a harvest of sleeping saints. This “grain” was “marked” during the earthquake at Christ’s death. The graves were opened by the quake, but none of the First Fruits “grain” was “harvested” yet, as none of them came out of their graves on the day of Passover.

“Yahshua, when He had cried again with a loud voice, yielded up the ghost. And, behold, the veil of the temple was rent in twain from the top to the bottom; and the earth did quake, and the rocks rent; and the graves were opened.”

Matthew 27:50-52

First Fruits Stage 2: Cutting the Grain

On Sabbath, the day before the actual day of First Fruits, the First Fruits grain (which had been marked) was cut. This was fulfilled in the resurrection of the sleeping saints. They resurrected with Christ and then had time (before the presentation of the First Fruits grain the next morning) to go into the city and witness. “...And many bodies of the saints which slept arose, And came out of the graves after His resurrection, and went into the holy city, and appeared unto many...”

Matthew 27:53-54

The only event of First Fruits which actually takes place on the day of First Fruits is the waving of the grain. This happened when Christ and the resurrected saints were presented before the Throne in Heaven, on Sunday. And in this beautiful fulfillment of the Jonah prophecy, all basis for Sunday keeping falls away! Keeping Sunday sacred has long been a pagan practice. But the Jonah prophecy is the Sign of true Messiah’s authenticity. And it is the key to the Gospel of the Kingdom that is to be preached!

Translation Work in Sweden

Called to Canaan is now being translated into Swedish! This past July, we received an unsolicited e-mail from a fellow-believer in Sweden, named Lars Borre. Lars is a committed Christian and a believer in Torah. He has a film studio in Sweden and has made several documentary-style films to show the Truth of the Bible in his country. Lars was contacting us to request our permission for him to begin the work of translating Called to Canaan Volume 1: "Reproof and Rules for the Road" into Swedish! Of course we gladly gave him our blessing and are excited to announce that because of Borre's commitment and work, the Sealing Message of Called to Canaan will soon be available to our brothers and sisters in Sweden! We are keeping Lars, his studio ministry, and translating work in our prayers and we ask you to join us in praying for him and his work.

In case you are unfamiliar with our Called to Canaan series of books, this is our three-volume series (by Danette Davis and Shauna Manfredine), which parallels the walk of Israel through the wilderness with the spiritual walk of Yahweh's people in the last generation. Each of the 42 campsites described in Numbers 33 reveal last-day lessons for those who will be the elect of God. Numerous parallels come forth in these three volumes to bring insight and encouragement to God's end-time "wilderness travelers." The experiences of Israel at these 42 campsites directly relate to the experiences of Yahweh's last generation in the 1260-day timeline.

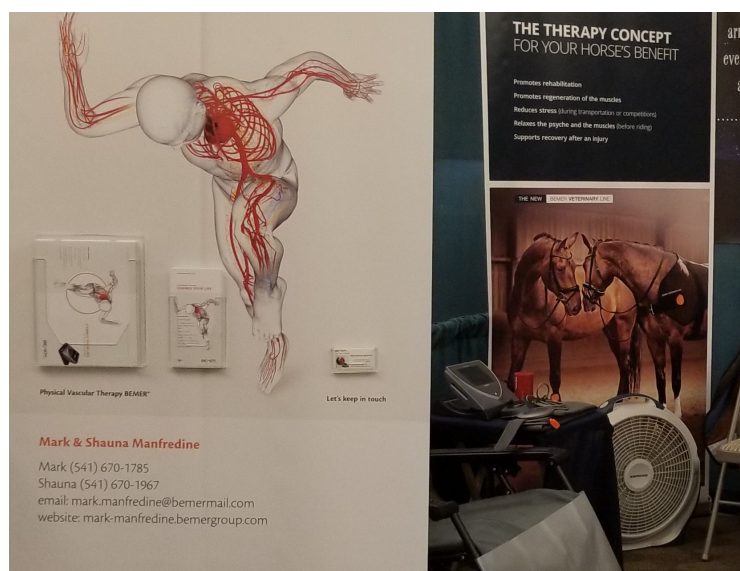

The process of passing through these experiences is the sealing, of having the Father's Name (42 letters) written upon His people. Volume 1 covers the experiences of the first fourteen campsites, revealing crucial lessons to aid those leaving spiritual Egypt in pursuit of Canaan. Readers are led to discover powerful parallels that Yahweh's last generation must learn, lest we repeat the history of ancient Israel (1 Corinthians 10) and similarly be turned back from the very borders of Canaan.

(above) Shauna Manfredine stands next to her God's Amazing Star Secret book display in our fair booth. We were excited to have the hardbound versions of this book at the fair.

(above) Our BEMER displays in our booth included flyers and business cards right on the display. In the background you can see our zero-gravity chair with the BEMER mat in place on the chair, ready for the next person. We found that by offering the health blessing of the BEMERs (we had two set up during the fair) throughout the fair, we had more opportunities to spend time with people and to talk with them.

We also felt that God had a purpose in placing us by the right neighboring vendors. There were many wonderful moments of good conversation with them. From this week at the fair, we have made several new friends in the community and are looking forward to future contacts with them, involving both BEMER sessions and God's Amazing Star Secret presentations. We anticipate several invitations to give this planetarium-style presentation showing the Plan of Redemption in the original star and constellation names in our local, Sunday-keeping churches. This is an exciting beginning and we are praying for Yahweh to water the spiritual seed that has been planted.

This past week Lighted Way Ministries hosted a booth at our local, Douglas County Fair, held every summer here in Roseburg, Oregon. It was a wonderful experience, in spite of the long hours (we were required to be manning the booth for 12 hours a day!) And there were many Divine appointments, new contacts, and ministry opportunities. (See our photos on the previous page.)

Mark and Shauna Manfredine ran the fair booth the entire five days of the fair. We were thankful to also have precious volunteers from our local group joining us in prayer and in helping out in the booth! What a blessing that was!

We had two things going on in our booth. We focused on health on one side of the 10x10 booth and the other side was featuring Shauna Manfredine's new book God's Amazing Star Secret.

On the health side of the booth, we set up two BEMER systems for people and we also had a BEMER system for horses on display. The BEMER is a pulse-electro-magnetic frequency mat (along with various applicators), which boosts the body's circulation. We gave free BEMER sessions to 50 new people throughout the days of the fair. Several of the people who came for BEMER sessions were so blessed that they came back. Some of our neighboring vendors even started coming for daily BEMER sessions!

There are many blessings that folks experienced from coming for BEMER sessions in our booth. But

Hosting a Fair Booth

"Ask ye of Yahweh Rain in the time of the Latter Rain; so Yahweh shall make bright clouds, and give them showers of Rain..." Zechariah 10:1

for space, we'll just share two experiences. One lady was a vendor in a nearby natural cosmetics booth. At the beginning of the fair, she developed a migraine headache which was so bad that she had to go to the hospital. The next day, feeling another migraine coming on, she came for a BEMER session. The 8-minute session took her developing migraine totally away!

Another lady came by our booth with a huge cast-boot on her foot. Seeing her need, we invited her for a free BEMER session on her foot. We wrapped her foot with the BEMER pad and put her on the 20 minute BEMER program. During this session we visited with her, praying for God to direct our time with her.

Suddenly she blurted out, "Do you know anything about the Sabbath?"

We were surprised and asked, "Do you keep the Sabbath?"

The woman continued, "And the Passover... Do you know anything about that?"

Now even more incredulous, we asked, "You keep the Passover?"

Thinking our surprise was because we thought keeping Sabbaths and Feasts unnecessary, the woman responded, "Well I see that we should keep these things in the Bible."

To which we excitedly informed her that we certainly keep them also and we agree that these things are given in Scripture to be kept. After this announcement, the conversation that followed was nothing short of a Divine appointment. In the end, we invited the delighted lady to join us in keeping Sabbaths in our local fellowship. We expect to see her and her family this coming Sabbath. This dear lady was one of two ladies who came to our fair booth and now plans to join us for Sabbath fellowship!

Additionally, several local Sunday pastors and Christian leaders came by our booth and took our flyer on having the God's Amazing Star Secret presentation in their church. Several plan to have us give this presentation in their churches.

What to Expect at the Retreat

POWERFUL PRESENTATIONS:

GUEST SPEAKER: Lyn Wright - Series on the Pagan Trinity Doctrine. Never has the subject of the Trinity been explained more deeply, nor the pagan-underpinnings of the teaching exposed more thoroughly than Lyn does in this timely series. Understand the most foundational principles of Torah and its counterfeit like never before.

Mark and Shauna Manfredine - Series on Christian Living. Topics in this inspiring series include: How to Avoid a Shipwrecked Life (and gain a clear conscience), Keys to true Success (practical guidelines on engrafting Scripture - it's more than memorization), Finding Shelter Under His Wings (how to live under God's Authority), Conquering Anger & Wrath, Overcoming Bitterness, Freedom from Moral Impurity, Accepting God's Loving Design in our 10 Unchangables, and How to Speak so God will Listen and Listen so God will Speak (principles for effective prayer).

Mark Manfredine - Series on Doctrines for Our Time. In this series, Mark will address questions like: Why is the moon under the woman's feet in Revelation?, When did the devil fall from Heaven and did this effect Creation? When does the day begin? What does the Crucifixion story show us about the Calendar? What role does the moon play in the lives of God's people? Is all darkness evil? Are there parts of Torah that matter more than others? In this series, Mark will address these and many more teachings that are currently being promoted. Let's get into the Word!

Shauna Manfredine - Workshop on Bible Study. In the End of Time, we are warned that every wind of deception will be blowing. The only protection against our being blown away by these destroying winds is our being rooted in the Word through proper Bible study. In this workshop, you will need to bring your Bible, your Strong's Concordance and other study aids, paper, and writing implements. Come prepared to get "messy"! In this workshop, we will be going deep into the practical guidelines of how to study the Bible. Participants will be learning to use the study aids (hands-on), discovering which Bible's are most effective for finding the Truth, and learning vital keys to proper Bible study. In addition, participants will be able to request that we do Bible studies on your most-wanted topics. We'll spend several days actually studying these requested topics together, using the tools and techniques which always yield the correct Biblical doctrine.

INSPIRING EXPERIENCES:

An Evening Under the Stars. One night, during the retreat, you're invited to stay up later in order to enjoy the Gospel in the Stars - Live, under the stars. Bring your telescope - or enjoy ours. And see the constellations and hear the star story with Shauna Manfredine. In addition to seeing the constellations and hearing their messages live, under the stars, children of all ages will enjoy hearing Shauna tell her star story around the campfire that night.

Marriage Supper of the Lamb Banquet. The closing experience for this spiritual week will be an inspiring dress rehearsal for the Marriage Supper of the Lamb. A vegan banquet will be served along with a musical program celebrating our King's Return—and what comes next. Catch the vision!

Nature Tours & Day Activities. Come away from it all and rest! The Feasts aren't only a time to Feast in the Word, they are also a time to rejuvenate and experience re-creation! With that goal in mind, we're planning a couple of natural outings. See the wildlife... Enjoy God's Second book. Bring your walking gear!

We hope to see you and your family at the Feast this Fall!
