

Psalm 119 & the Hebrew Aleph Bet - Part 12

The twelfth letter of the Hebrew alphabet is called “Lamed” and has the sound of “L” as in “look”. It has the numeric value of 30. The pictograph for Lamed looks like a shepherd's staff or goad, whereas the classical Hebrew script is constructed of a Kaph with a Vav standing upon it:

In modern Hebrew, the Lamed appears in three forms:

King of the Letters

The letter Lamed is unique in the Hebrew alphabet since it is the tallest letter (it is the only letter that rises above the baseline) and, as the 12th letter, it is considered the central letter (or "heart") of the Hebrew alphabet:

Since Lamed towers over the other letters from its central position, it is said to represent melekh hamelakhim, the King of Kings. This idea is supported by the idea that the preceding letter stands for kisei hakavod, "the throne of Glory," and the following letter stands for malkhut, "kingdom." The sages also point out that the three central letters can spell the word melekh, King.

Spiritual Meaning of the Lamed

Lamed = 30 and means "TEACHING" of Yahweh or "LEARNING" of Yah in Torah.

Learning is not an end in itself, but should spur us on to action. For example, in Pirkei Avot 1:7 it is written:

וְלֹא הַמְדָּרֵשׁ הָעֵקֶר, אֲלָא הַמַּעֲשֵׂה.

"Study is not the ultimate goal, rather the deeds."

In other words, a true student or learner is not one who is entirely bookish and without deeds of righteousness that accompany his or her learning. This is echoed in the famous words of Simon the Just, who said that the world stands upon three things: upon Torah, upon worship and upon loving deeds:

"Upon three things the world does stand: upon the Torah and upon worship and upon acts of lovingkindness."

In light of this, we can see how the word Lamed is connected with malmad, a goad or spur to action. Like a wise shepherd, learning will both spur us on to good deeds

Lamed can be seen as an acronym for the phrase lev meivin da'at, meaning "a heart that understands knowledge":

In other words, the goal of learning and teaching (lamed) is heart knowledge. Moreover, since it is the only letter allowed to ascend above the other letters in the sacred writings, Lamed represents the prominence of learning and understanding to the heart.

The Hebrew name of the letter itself, lamed, comes from the root lamad meaning to learn or teach, which first occurs in Deuteronomy 4:1

וְעַתָּה יִשְׂרָאֵל שִׁמְעוּ אֶל-הַחֻקִּים וְאֶל-הַמִּשְׁפָּטִים
אֲשֶׁר אָנֹכִי מְלַמֵּד אֶתְכֶם

"And now, O Israel, listen to the statutes and the rules that I am teaching you..." From this we can see that the first business of learning is mishnei Torah, the repetition (or inculcation) of the Torah. Indeed, since Lamed is the tallest of the Hebrew letters, it draws our attention to the source of all learning, namely the Torah itself.

When Lamed appears as a prefix to a word in Hebrew, it often denotes the grammatical object which we translate with "to" or "for." For example, melekh means king, but l'melekh means "to a king" or "for a king." In other words, Lamed designates the direction or goal of action as well as the goal of that action.

Learning is then a means to an end, not the end itself. But what is the end to which it leads? Is it not the love of the YAHWEH Himself and His salvation? Is not a relationship with Yahweh God of Israel the final goal of Torah? As Yahshua Himself said, "You search the Scriptures (i.e., Torah) because you think that in them you have eternal Life; but it is they that bear witness of Me" (John 5:39). In other words, studying and learning Torah is meant to ultimately reveal the love and grace of the Mashiach, Yahshua, the true Teacher and King of Kings.

Lamed: Secrets in the Letter Formation

The letter Lamed itself represents the number 30, but its constituent parts, Vav and Kaf, yield the number 26, which is the number of יהוה, YHWH:

Since Lamed is central and raised above all the other letters, it represents YHWH, or the King of Kings.

In Genesis 27:30 there is an unusual tag added to the normal Lamed: This reads, "As soon as Isaac finished blessing Jacob..." (The flourish on the Lamed occurs in the word kalah “finished” “made an end”). This extra embellishment on the Lamed points to the blessing that God gave to Jacob and His Seed. It means that this is a blessing descending directly from Yahweh out of Heaven.

וַיְהִי כִּשְׁמֹנֶה עָשָׂר יָמִים וַיִּצְחָק לְבָרָךְ אֶת־יַעֲקֹב

The word Yisrael (Israel) begins with the smallest letter (Yod) and ends with the largest letter (Lamed), suggesting Israel's dependence upon Yahweh. In fact, in Exodus 19:5 the scribes write a deliberately oversized Lamed and a deliberately undersized Yod right next to one another:

וְהָיִיתֶם לִי סְגֻלָּה מִכָּל־הָעַמִּים

This reads, "And you shall be to Me a treasure among all the peoples." Israel is “am segulah,” a treasured people, when they keep the Covenant of Yahweh by acknowledging His greatness and Israel's smallness. That is, God is the great Lamed, Teacher, King of Kings, whereas Israel is the small Yod, the small hand extended upward to Heaven in praise and in worship. When the relationship between Yahweh and us is like this, we are truly Israel - the treasured possession to Yahweh.

In Deuteronomy 29:28 there is an oversized Lamed:

וַיִּשְׁלַחְכֶם אֶל־אֶרֶץ אַחֶרֶת

This reads, "and He cast them into another land..." This oversized Lamed suggests that Israel's rebellion against Torah resulted in their ejection from the Promised Land. But even this punishment would be used by Yahweh to greatly teach them about His Greatness. And in these Last Days, we behold the manifold wisdom of Yahweh as He gathers all of spiritual Israel back to the Torah Truth in anticipation of His soon coming as Israel's true King of Kings!

Lamed: Lights of the World

The shape of the lamed has been compared to a watchtower, or a lighthouse, serving as a sen-tinel at the heart of the Hebrew alphabet. In the Torah scrolls, the vase of the lamed is formed by a kaph (the letter which symbolizes our submission to Yahweh and obedience – which results in good (Grace Empowered) works (which are obedient to Torah). To form the lamed, atop the kaph sits a vav, in the shape of a flame. This shows that our Spirit-empowered, Torah-obedient GOOD WORKS give Light to all those around. It was this symbology that Yahshua was referring to when He said, in the context of the Torah (Matthew 5:14-18):

Ye are the light of the world. A city that is set on an hill cannot be hid. Neither do men light a candle, and put it under a bushel, but on a candlestick; and it giveth light unto all that are in the house. Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven. Think not that I am come to destroy the law, or the prophets: I am not come to destroy, but to fulfil (“level up, fully preach, accomplish, perfect supply”). For verily I say unto you, Till Heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the Law, till all be fulfilled.

As the flame-like protrusion stands atop the kaph in the formation of the lamed, so our good deeds should provide a platform to display the Light of Yahweh’s Truth, emanating from the Torah.

The arrangement of the vav supported by the kaph (which is a hand, as well as wings) also illustrates the verse, “Humble yourselves, therefore under God’s mighty Hand, that He may lift you up in due time,” (1 Peter 5:6). It is only the humble one who has been dealt with by Yahweh’s Hand who can produce works that are truly Good and Torah-obedient. As the vav stands atop the kaph, so the man who is filled with Torah-understanding (knowing and doing) will be like a city on a hill whose light shines forth to illuminate a dark world.

Paleo-Hebrew Look at Lamed:

The Early Hebrew pictograph is , a shepherd's staff. The shepherd staff was used to direct sheep by pushing or pulling them. It was also used as a weapon against predators to defend and protect the sheep.

The meaning of this letter is toward as moving something in a different direction. This letter also means authority, as it is a sign of the shepherd, the leader of the flock. It also means yoke, a staff on the shoulders as well as tie or bind from the yoke that is bound to the animal.

(TEACH = to goad, that is, (by implication) to teach (the rod being an Oriental incentive): - [un-] accustomed, X diligently, expert, instruct, learn, skilful, teach (-er, -ing).

Psalm 119:89-96 Shows the Lamed:

In Psalm 119:89-96, we find the Lamed section. In this part of Psalm 119, we see the Torah being exonerated as the permanent principles of Yahweh's Kingdom. We also see man's choice to comply with Heaven's Rules – living as a bright and shining Light upon the earth.

Personal Application:

1. What was the most personally meaningful message of the Lamed that you found in this study?

When I am enlightened by Yahweh, I will see plainly that instead of being a curse or burden, His Torah is LIFE. This is why David asked Yahweh to GOAD him into the path of Torah Obedience. This is the Old Path that all, who have citizenship in the Kingdom of Yahweh, have walked since ancient times. Rebellion against Torah is Rebellion against Yahweh and rejection of His Kingdom. This is the way of Rest and Blessing:

Jeremiah 6:16 Thus saith the LORD, Stand ye in the ways, and see, and ask for the old paths, where [is] the good way, and walk therein, and ye shall find rest for your souls. But they said, We will not walk [therein].

2. What insights about Yahweh did you gain?

We don't often think of goading an ox or driving sheep as pleasant. Certainly it doesn't appear a blessing. Yet, when Yahweh is invited to goad us into the Way of Life, He does so by teaching us His Torah – sometimes even hedging us about with painful consequences – that we will be driven from our foolishness, into the path of blessing. This is a powerful picture of Yahweh as the ultimate loving Parent and Heavenly Shepherd.
