Victory Over the ABOMINATION of DESOLATION in YAH's SPIRIT

There is no topic more sobering and relevant today than that of victory over the soon-coming Abomination of Desolation, mentioned in Daniel 11 and Matthew 24.

The establishment of this horrible abomination will mark the beginning of the most terrible time of trouble, ever faced since the beginning of time. The placement of the Abomination of Desolation also marks the beginning of the final timelines in the countdown to the Saviour's return.

Scriptures plainly indicate that YAH's people are to watch out for this terrible event. It is a prophetic marker, not to be missed. But, if we are to watch for it, we must know what the Abomination of Desolation is. We can take courage in seeking this understanding, for YHWH wants us to understand and identify it correctly (Matthew 24:15).

We can gain great insights into the final fulfillment of this prophecy by identifying the Abomination of Desolation in its former application. The first fulfillment of Daniel's prophecy of the Abomination of Desolation involved the Seleucid king Antiochus IV in 167 B.C.

This pagan power entered the Temple in Jerusalem, erected an idol and an altar to the false sun-god Zeus, and sacrificed a pig on it. That desecration triggered the Maccabean Revolt by the Hasmonians. Their consummate victory and cleansing of the Temple has long been commemorated by the annual Festival of Hanukkah (which means "Feast of Dedication"). Yahshua Himself kept this feast while He was here (John 10:22-23). The original Hanukkah story reminds of the victory YHWH gave His people over the first manifestation of the Abomination of Desolation. Having stood bravely against the terrible abomination, the courageous slogan of the Maccabean "rebels" echoes to us through the portals of time: "...Not by might, nor by power, but by My Spirit saith YHWH..." (Zechariah 4:6-7).

Along with the biblical prophecies on the Abomination of Desolation, there is no better source for future details than the past manifestation of this abomination! Yet few Christians today think of seeking clues for the future in this past fulfillment of the Abomination of Desolation. The timely details of the Hanukkah story are lost to Christians under the garb of "Jewish" culture or pagan trappings added through the centuries. Today, the significance of Hanukkah is trivialized into a mere "Jewish Christmas."

Yet Hanukkah and Christmas are opposites. Christmas was a celebration of Tammuz's birth (December 25). Through the centuries, this pagan event was "Christianized" by adding "sanctified"...

...traditions onto a foul and heathen root system.

Hanukkah, on the other hand, was established as a historical marker of how YHWH had defeated the Abomination of Desolation. It was about the cleansing that followed this abomination. And foreshadows the future victory promised by YHWH when the final Abomination of Desolation rises again. But, this pure and powerful root-system has been obscured from view under the added traditions of driedels, six-pointed stars, and Jewish nationalism.

It's time to strip the foolishness away and look at Hanukkah with fresh eyes. For in YHWH's past defeat of the Abomination of Desolation we find encouragement and needed truths for the future.

In short, this miraculous defeat of the Abomination of Desolation took place because Judah Maccabee, a priest with strong faith, led a small band of "rebels" against the powerful Greco-Syrian empire. Against seemingly insurmountable odds YHWH fought through Judah and his brothers. As a result, their small and relatively untrained army defeated the formidable Greek armies.

In December (Hebrew month Kislev) 164 A.D., the Maccabees regained Mount Zion and delivered it from the hands of the idolaters. They cleansed the Temple and rid it of Hellenistic altars, reconstructed it according to the Torah, and rededicated it for the worship of the one true God.

As the Temple services were started again, there wasn't enough sacred oil to keep the menorah lit for more than one day in the Holy Place. It would take time to make and consecrate more holy oil. Still the people were eager to serve YHWH and decided not to wait. YHWH caused the small amount of oil to last eight days, while more sacred oil was prepared.

Thus, at every turn, YHWH was present; leading, guiding, and miraculously intervening. Just this one detail alone is enough to strengthen the faith of YHWH's last day saints. Truly "...we have nothing to fear for the future except we forget how God has led us in the past."

But, other than the faith-building promise clearly viewable in the Hanukkah story, what details can we glean from it bringing the Bible prophecy into bold, living color?

Consider the Following Key Points:

- The Abomination of Desolation wasn't set up in a day. It was a process, taking place gradually, over time. So effective were these gradual preparations, that when the actual Abomination was fully set up in the Holy Place, many of God's professed followers wondered after the "beast" instead of standing strong. These same preparations have been going on among YHWH's professed church today, as will soon be explained.
- YHWH's true people noticed the "creeping compromises" being slowly introduced. They never partook of these subtle sins. Because of their loyalty in these "small" areas, true Israel was prepared to stand the big test. This will be true in our time as well.
- YHWH's true people saw the Abomination of Desolation, and knew what it was. They followed the biblical injunction to flee quickly. And they warred against it in YHWH's strength. In the last days, there should be no question in our minds about what the abomination will look like, and how to recognize it.

First, it may surprise you to discover that the preparatory steps for the Abomination of Desolation are already complete. To demonstrate this, we must identify the preparations for the Abomination of Desolation, as they appeared in the 2nd Century B.C.

One of the first steps to turn the hearts of professed Israel into a path of compromise was accomplished through the education of the young people. At first, the Greek power seemed benevolent to occupied Israel. Greek schools and philosophical centers were established to "better" the lives of the "backward" Hebrews. Where before, the Torah and the Prophets had been the textbooks for the youths of Israel, gradually this educational system came to be out-of-vogue. At the insidious suggestion of the Greeks that perhaps this education was too limited, the educators began to wonder, "How can our young people compete in the world of great thinkers, unless they understand the teachings of Plato, etc...?" Greek teachings and philosophies crept into the Hebrew schools. Within a short amount of time, pagan Hellenistic teachings had completely taken over the "Christian" education system.

Consider this in light of what has happened to "Christian" education today. It is also interesting to note that Mattathias, the father of Judah Maccabee and his brothers, home-schooled his boys to prevent them from being corrupted by this paganized education system. It was through this pure form of training, that these young men were prepared to resist the "beast."

The next preparation which caused many Jews to readily accept the Abomination of Desolation was achieved through entertainment. In what again appeared as a kindness, the Greeks set up sports arenas and gaming centers throughout the land of Israel. Many of these arenas were constructed in close vicinity to local synagogues. Interest in Greek sports quickly spread, especially through the young people. Soon the youths were attending games right after Sabbath services. They could hardly wait for church to end so that they could get to their next entertainment event. Eventually, in the hearts and minds of many, sports and Greek entertainment eclipsed Torah entirely. Does this preparation have a parallel among Christians today? Yes!

The last preparation for the Abomination of Desolation was achieved through the clergy. The Jewish High Priest Onias III and a temple official called Simon the Benjamite, turned traitor to YHWH and

Victory Over the Abomination.....

... sided with the Greeks. These trusted spiritual leaders began to plunder the Temple’s treasury, to benefit the Hellenistic pagans.

The most insidious plundering of the “Temple Treasury” is keeping truth from the people. Today, once again, the spiritual leadership of the churches are largely working on the side of the pagan power. The plunder worked by these traitors of the true Gospel is preparing many to accept the principles of the Abomination today, making it simple for their blind followers to accept it in fact in the near future. The Bible has a great deal to say about this.

Jeremiah 6:13-14 “For from... the prophet even unto the priest every one dealeth falsely. They have healed also the hurt... My people... saying, Peace, peace; when there is no peace.”

Jeremiah 23:1 “Woe be unto the pastors that destroy and scatter the sheep of My pasture! saith YHWH.”

Matthew 15:14 “Let them alone: they be blind leaders of the blind. And if the blind lead the blind, both shall fall into the ditch.”

How was the vast majority of Israel blinded to the reality of the Abomination? How were most of them able to worship the “beast” in 165 BC? Because they had fallen prey to the preparations, they were unable to stand in the final fire! Joining in the abominable sacrifice of pigs upon the altar of God and participating in the full worship of Zeus was not so blatant in their eyes, for they had long been participating in these atrocities in principle, before doing so in fact.

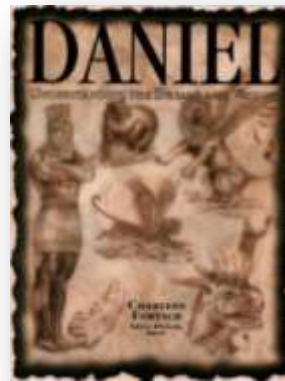

This same creeping compromise is at work today. Many who profess to follow the Saviour will blatantly betray Him when the final Abomination of Desolation is set up. Only a fraction of those who claim it will stand with pure Israel in that final test. But, what many don’t realize is that the way we face the small tests, the daily onslaught of compromise, is determining whether we’ll be faithful or fall on that fateful future day. Prayerfully, look at your own life, dear Reader. Are you faithful to YHWH now? Or have you fallen under creeping compromise?

Even now it isn’t too late to be made pure and have our feet set upon the path of righteousness!

The final point to consider, as we examine the story of the former Abomination, is that YHWH’s true people recognized it immediately when it was set up.

What about us today? Like the faithful Maccabees of old, do we know what to look for? Just what is the Abomination of Desolation, soon to be set up in the Holy Place? This is something we must understand. For one thing, failure to recognize it will cause us to miss Heaven’s cue to flee (Mark 13:14).

As is so aptly explained in Charlene Fortch’s book, Daniel: Understanding the Dreams & Visions (available through our online bookstore), the power which sets up the Abomination of Desolation is the papacy. Note the following comparison chart:

Desolation, we are better prepared to identify what is being set up by this power.

Next, we can identify this event by examining the biblical clues. The Abomination is at hand, when Jerusalem is compassed about with armies.

Luke 21:20 “And when ye shall see Jerusalem compassed with armies, then know that the desolation thereof is nigh (at hand).”

Scripture also shows that great military power will accompany the King of the North when it takes the “Glorious Land” (Daniel 11:16 & 41) which is Israel, also known as the “goodly land” (Deut. 3:25).

For some time now, the papacy has been working to make Jerusalem the new headquarters of the “Holy See.” This work, begun in the Crusades, has very nearly reached completion. In the November 12, 2010 issue of Haaretz, there was an article titled: “Peres wants to hand over Christian sites in Israel to Vatican.” The article explained:

COMPARISON OF THE BIBLICAL NAMES AND TITLES OF THE PAPACY

Scripture Reference	Name/Title	Meaning
Daniel 7:8 and 8:9	“Little Horn”	the papacy as a religious and political power
Daniel 11:40	“King of the North”	the papal “kingdom” which will establish its “palace” (headquarters) between the seas in Jerusalem
Revelation 17:3-8	“Woman” who rides the “Beast”	the papal church united with the final Anti-Christ
2 Thessalonians 2:3-8	“Man of Sin” “Son of Perdition (Son of Satan)”	the papal power which opposes and exalts itself above God, claiming to BE God.

The papal power is the only power on earth which meets every one of Daniel 7’s “Little Horn” characteristics. It also meets Daniel 11’s description of the “King of the North,” in the final fulfillment.

Having identified the power which will set up the Abomination of “President Shimon Peres is urging the government to yield control of key Christian holy sites to the Vatican... The Vatican’s longstanding demand that Israel transfer sovereignty of key Christian sites to the control of the...”

Victory Over the Abomination.....

“...Holy See has created dissension among senior officials in Jerusalem. ...Peres is pressing the government to agree to the Vatican's request that Israel surrender control of six religious sites, among them the Church of the Annunciation in Nazareth (where tradition holds that Gabriel announced Yahshua's birth to Mary), the Coenaculum on Mount Zion in Jerusalem, (traditional site of The Last Supper), Gethsemane..., Mount Tabor (which is the supposed site of Yahshua's ascension), and the Church of the Multiplication (the supposed location where Yahshua fed the 5,000 with a few loaves of bread and fishes).”

In exchange for these sites, the Vatican will restore the Temple artifacts taken by Titus in 70 AD, which it currently holds in the Vatican basement. Recovery of these artifacts is something many Jews believe is vital to the building of “Ezekiel's Temple” on Mount Zion, for the Messianic Age (for more information, request our DVD titled Jerusalem and the Messianic Age or our newest DVD Replacement Theology Lie, which is part of our new 8-DVD Doctrinal series). This temple, which the papacy and many Jews are working to build, is soon to be constructed in Jerusalem. It will house a powerful “messiah,” who will be none other than the final Anti-Christ.

Daniel 11:45 “And he (the King of the North) shall plant the tabernacles of his palace between the seas in the glorious holy mountain; yet he shall come to his end...”

Consider the identity of the Abomination of Desolation as you ponder these clues. Prayerfully put them together with the information from the first manifestation of the Abomination of Desolation. Together, they form a clear picture, allowing us today to watch for this event, just as they did long ago.

Matthew 24:15-16 “When ye therefore shall see the abomination of desolation, spoken of by Daniel the prophet, stand in the holy place, (whoso readeth, let him understand:) Then let them which be in Judaea flee into the mountains.”

Highlights From Tabernacles, 2010

This year Lighted Way Ministries held the Feast of Tabernacles at a facility in River Forks Park located along the Umpqua River in Roseburg, Oregon.

It was so well attended (with about 75 joining us for the final Marriage Supper of the Lamb vegan banquet and program) that we are actively looking for a larger facility to rent for Spring!

Speakers included Walter Tschoepe, who shared with us about Preparing to Meet YHWH; Denny and Brenda Kaneshiro, who presented health materials and even put on a daily (non-Sabbath days) Health Expo; Alex Ruiz and Cherish Moore, who gave a dynamic program for the teens; Jeff Adams, who taught about preparing for the coming global crisis; a group of ladies who shared an Evangelism Workshop; and Debbie Grant and Virginia Scott, who taught us about healing herbs in our local woods. Several of our teens shared powerful morning worship talks as well.

Mark and Shauna Manfredine both spoke at the retreat also. Mark shared two powerful talks about what was nailed to the Cross along with a worship series on the spiritual significance of the Tabernacles ceremonies. Shauna shared a hard-hitting new series on Doctrines, exposing the eight most dangerous teachings in Christianity today.

Danette Davis and Cathy Moore ran a wonderful children's program each day, much to the children's delight! And in addition to these blessings, YHWH blessed everyone through the special music numbers, food (the food prep was headed by Cindy Hernandez), and time spent with like-minded believers.

The Holy Spirit was present mightily. One of the highlights of the week was a special baptism and anointing service. There were ten baptisms and fifteen anointing, as many were convicted to follow YHWH completely and without reservation.

The daily Health Expo, organized by the Kaneshiro's, was a big hit. We enjoyed the fresh, organic smoothie bar (by Shauna Manfredine); the facials (by Tabitha Kaneshiro and friends); the blood analysis work (by Denny Kaneshiro); the far-infrared sauna (by Brenda Kaneshiro); the hand and foot massage (by Elizabeth and Esther Kaneshiro); and the timely information and display in the preparedness booth (by Jeff Adams).

Among those who attended the feast was a lady named Debbie, who arrived with numerous health problems. Debbie explained that she had been unable to kneel or walk unaided for six years. During the feast, Debbie was anointed and Yahshua healed her physically and spiritually. She joyously knelt for prayer in the very next meeting. And has no more need of her walker or wheel chair. YHWH is so good!

On the last night of the feast, we enjoyed a moving program on the events between the Second Coming and the Marriage Supper of the Lamb. Mark and Shauna told the story of what would take place, interspersed with music, and a memorable, vegan, Middle Eastern banquet. Cindy Hernandez and a team of teen volunteers served the food in banquet-style fashion. It was a memorable end to a wonderful week.

For those of you who would like to get in on the dynamic messages from this retreat, the DVD's are all now available! (See the order form in this newsletter.)

Evangelism and Ministry Update...

Mark Manfredine prepares to baptize Virginia (top left). Eileen Beseley (who joined us all the way from New York) gives her testimony before baptism (top right).

Many of you have joined us for the Sabbath services offered via Webinar. This has quickly proved to be a powerful tool providing spiritual nourishment and fellowship among the body of Messiah near and far.

Sabbath Webinar programming is now available every other Sabbath. See the Webinar schedule through January for specific dates and times.

We have most recently been broadcasting a new continuing series called Sabbath Through the Ages. This series is our updated and more complete study of the Weekly and Annual Sabbath truths.

In addition to this series, our regular program includes a special World Watch (on how Bible prophecy is being fulfilled in recent news) segment, a continuing children's story, and a Christian character development segment along with a study into the Hebrew alphabet.

Some of you have expressed regret at being unable to attend or having to miss a scheduled Webinar broadcast. The good news is that we now have the recordings of our past Webinar sessions viewable online! To playback a past Webinar session, visit our website homepage at www.lightedway.org and select the link (upper middle) "PLAYBACK A PAST WEBINAR RECORDING."

In addition to the Fall Feast and Sabbath Webinars, we recently hosted a Keys to Living Like You've Been Saved evangelistic crusade in the local community. Teaming up with volunteers from our local Bible study group, each night offered a presentation followed by a group discussion. There were about 35 folks who attended this first Lighted Way Ministries evangelistic crusade.

As a follow-up to the spiritual warfare materials taught in the Keys seminar, we are now writing a new Christian Character development Bible study course. These Bible study guides are each 16 pages long and come in full color. The study titles include: Gaining a Clear Conscience, Engrafting Scripture, Finding Safety Under God's Umbrella, Yielding Rights to Conquer Anger, Suffering with Grace, Overcoming Bitterness, Finding Freedom from Moral Impurity, Accepting God's Design, and Learning to Speak so God Will Listen and Listen so God Will Speak.

These studies will soon be available.

Please keep all these ministry venues in your prayers!

The group gathers to lay hands on the ten newly baptized followers of Yahshua in the post-baptismal anointing service.

Christopher Manfredine and Caleb Jeske share a powerful morning worship talk. These were two of several teens who spoke at the retreat.

Current Events and New World Order Update

The above New World Order map shows the 20 new political boundary lines. This map was printed in the October 4, 2010 issue of Newsweek magazine. Under the NWO, current political boundaries (meaning national sovereignties) will cease to exist.

A young woman brings a tributary gift to the Ark of Hope at the United Nations' World Summit On Sustainable Development.

It might seem strange that the powerful Rockefellers would use the word "spiritual" first in the "new world order," but consider Robin Hood again. He had also been referred to as Robin of Greenwood or Green Robin, named for the Green Man, who was the Celtic vegetation god (often emblemized in the Celtic Cross).

Since the 1950s, the media has told and re-told the story of "Robin Hood," in which the hero was also called the Earl or Baron of Locksley. It's just a story, right? Not to the Globalists! To them, the story of Robin Hood is prescient – foretelling our future under what is called the New World Order.

Pagan gods and goddesses will be acceptable in the spiritual new world order.

President Harry Truman used to carry in his pocket part of an 1842 poem by Alfred Lord Tennyson called "Locksley Hall." The part Truman carried with him predicted a "parliament of man, the federation of the world" with "universal law," and Truman explained "That's what I have been working for."

Before President George H.W. Bush called for a "new world order," Soviet dictator Mikhail Gorbachev called for it, and Gorbachev is now head of Green Cross International (note especially the words "Green" and "Cross"). Gorbachev (along with Maurice Strong) is also responsible for the Earth Charter, which Gorbachev and Strong both have stated will be like a new Ten Commandments. And they have placed the Charter (written by Steven Rockefeller) in the Ark-of-Hope, modeled after the Ark of the Covenant.

In the above (lower left) picture, the Ark of Hope, with its Earth Charter, held a position of great reverence at the United Nations World Summit on Sustainable Development. One lady brought an offering to lay before it, demonstrating her reverence.

Later in the 1950s, the Rockefeller Brothers Fund Special Studies Project produced The Mid-Century Challenge to U.S. Foreign Policy, in which one reads: "We cannot escape, and indeed should welcome, the task which history has imposed upon us. This is the task of helping shape a new world order in all its dimensions---spiritual, economic, political, social."

The sides of the United Nations' golden Ark of Hope are covered with pictures depicting various pagan, earth god-goddess scenes. Like the Ark of the Covenant, the Ark of Hope is transported on golden staves set into rings on the corners of the ark.

On June 25, 2001, the U.S. Conference of Mayors passed a resolution stating that the conference "endorses the Earth Charter and commits the organization to the realization of its aim." And one of the main goals of the Earth Charter is to "promote the equitable distribution of wealth within nations and among nations." Thus, just as Robin Hood "redistributed wealth" in feudal times, under the Earth Charter the wealth of primarily middle class Americans will be given to people in other nations.

Today we're going "back to the feudal," not only spiritually, but economically, politically, and socially as well.

What does it mean to say that the New World Order is designed as a feudal system? It means that the rights and privileges of freedom only apply to the masters at the top of the structure. The feudal system of Lords and serfs was the very system our nation's founding fathers wished to escape. It is not the romanticized view of knights and kings shown in movies, or even the Robin Hood story. It is a system where the working class folks are strongly divided from the nobility. The individual cannot climb out of his class or advance by hard work. There are no "rights" for and nothing is truly owned by the "serfdom."

The famous author Jack London in The Iron Heel (1907) said that Our Benevolent Feudalism (1902) by W.J. Ghent was "the textbook" the "Oligarchs" would use to rule in the future. London stated that the Oligarchs and Plutocrats would have new ways "of moulding the thought processes of the nation," and that the banks would constitute "one of the most important forces of the Oligarchy....The labor castes, the Mercenaries, and the great hordes of secret agents and police...were all pledged to the Oligarchy....The condition of the people of the abyss was pitiable....All their old liberties were gone. They were labor-slaves. Choice of work was denied them. Likewise was denied them...the right to bear or possess arms. They were not land-serfs like the farmers. They were machine-serfs and labor-serfs."

The plans have long been laid. Bible prophecies are rapidly being fulfilled. Are you seriously preparing to stand in soon-coming storm? Wake and pray – time is fleeting!
