YHWH want me to mentally gird and confine my mind with His Torah. In so doing, I enter into a love-league with Him which joins me together with YHWH, making me stronger. This mental binding of the Torah is a mark or token which signals to the unseen world that I belong to YHWH. When I am tied to YHWH in this Torah binding, my power, life-direction, means to reach it, and work that I do will all be obviously born of Heaven.
The Torah is also to be like the Helmet of Salvation to me. It is to go around my mind fully. As it does, I will be able to understand Truth. YHWH’s Truth and Torah will spring from within me as a pleasing fountain. I will no longer do my own will, but His, in humble obedience to what He thinks best. This gift He promises if I will regard His Torah to this complete level.

And its purpose is to be a visual reminder to me to think on and remember the Law of God. It is sign or mark which shows others also that I choose to remember the Law at all times. This blue tassel is a protection for me also, as it will help me to consider my commitment to YHWH and not go into spiritual adultery or idolatry.

In the Feast of Tabernacles in the Sabbatical year (a seventh year in the 7 cycles to Jubilee), YHWH wants me to gather with His people in a location acceptable in His Sight. We are also to have prayerfully made our hearts and minds acceptable in His Sight. Then, when we come together and congregate as He has commanded, we are to read the Torah aloud together, at least once every seven years. In this reading, the people will find the incentive needed to be goaded and prompted into actively revering the Most High God. As we do the things commanded in Torah, we will be hedged about and guarded from the enemy. And we will be furnished with YHWH's good works the more and more we are busy with Torah-obedient activity and thoughts. As we do this, we "hold a feast" unto YHWH that is truly worshipping Him in Spirit and in Truth.

YHWH tells me, in Revelation 5:10, that I am called to be a king and priest in His holy service. When a king came to the throne and began serving YHWH in this role, God wanted him first to write out his own copy of the Torah to read from every day. I too, am fitted for service of the Most High by studying and writing out my own, personal copy of the Torah. Then YHWH wants me to use this copy to daily read and publish this Light to others. Not only will learning the beautiful Torah principles hedge me about and give me the incentive I need to follow and please YHWH, but also it will protect me from become prideful and presumptuous, allowing YHWH to protect me from straying into the dangers of the kingdom of the south or the idolatrous north. The King of the North, mentioned in Daniel, is the beast power. Thus, YHWH promises that the Torah will help to protect me from rebelling against Heaven and aligning myself with the terrible soon-coming beast! Praise YHWH for the protection of Torah!

Torah Studies – Statute #28

Statute Summary:

YHWH has made His Law readily available to us, so that there is no excuse for not knowing and obeying it. Therefore, we are to turn to YHWH with all our hearts and souls and obey His Commandments and Statutes.

Deuteronomy 30:10-14 “If thou shalt hearken unto the Voice of the LORD thy God, to keep His Commandments and His Statutes which are written in this book of the Law, and if thou turn unto the LORD thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soul. For this commandment which I command thee this day, it is not hidden from thee, neither is it far off. It is not in heaven, that thou shouldest say, Who shall go up for us to heaven, and bring it unto us, that we may hear it, and do it? Neither is it beyond the sea, that thou shouldest say, Who shall go over the sea for us, and bring it unto us, that we may hear it, and do it? But the Word is very nigh unto thee, in thy mouth, and in thy heart, that thou mayest do it.”

YHWH wants me to desire to understand and listen to His Commandments and Statutes. I am to obey what I learn and then I am to share it with others. This is what it means to “come Home” and return to the starting relationship that mankind had with YHWH before the Fall. I want to go back to the starting relationship with God! I long for it! Thus, it is my highest joy to seek after Him and keep the Torah with my whole being. As I do, He imbues me more and more with His holy Breath!
It is sad that many do not wish this blessing. To such ones, YHWH reminds that we cannot say we had to look long and hard to find what pleased Him. He hasn’t placed it over the seas or beyond my easy reach. The Torah can be read and understood by any who desire to do so. I am thankful He has made it near to me. And I ask Him to put it in my mouth and write it on my heart that I will do it always.

YHWH is very good and His mercy is great toward me. I am to always be mindful of this fact. It is He Who feeds me and provides my every need. For this reason I am to eat my fill of the bounty He has provided and then respond by thanking Him for what He has given and for my satisfied and full condition. Everything that I have at any time, whether money or property, or anything else, is all from Him and placed into my hands by His blessing and good -ness toward me. This fact, I am never to forget, nor in any way be oblivious to. I am to be continually aware of His manifold blessings toward me. In continuous gratitude and praise toward Him for His bounties and mercy, I am protected from presumption and prideful self-exaltation. May I never foolishly breed worms in a rotten spirit, like Nebuchadnezzar who pridefully said, "Is this not great Babylon that I HAVE BUILT!"

I am to bring forth (by God’s Grace) and become His Holy Place. I am to be His consecrated and Holy Palace for the indwelling and permanent residence of His precious Holy Spirit. If I will join Heaven in doing this work, YHWH promises to stay within the center of my being, making me in the likeness of His similitude, or Patterning my heart and character into the resemblance of YAH. This, more than an earthly building, is what YHWH wants to dwell in.

YHWH wants me to guard, keep and hedge about His Sabbaths. I do this by being very careful not to even come close to doing something that would break it. He also wants me to revere His Sanctuary. His Sanctuary can be a literal building, where I come with like-minded people to worship Him in Spirit and in Truth. As I enter this space I am to behave and conduct myself in the manner that shows I understand His Holy Presence is there. But, also, reverencing His Sanctuary includes keeping myself a holy and consecrated temple (by His Power and Grace). I am to carefully avoid doing or partaking of anything that will defile His Sanctuary of my body temple.

Never am I ever to fix or fasten a Happy Easter pole, column, idol, or even a memorial near to God’s altar. Doing so is a spiritual joining of idolatry with the worship of YHWH. This is a dark and ugly soul tie with the enemy which the Almighty finds hateful and utterly odious! Since I am His Sanctuary, in a spiritual sense, His Holy Altar is my mind and heart. Thus I will have no part in the worship of Semarimis, Astarte, Eastre, Easter or Asherah. Never am I to blend or participate in anything that is part of the worship of this pagan “goddess.” I want nothing in me that my Heavenly Father finds hateful!
