Session 58: "The 1335 and the Final 70 Weeks"

Start Date: May 25, 2021 @ 10 AM (PDT)

1. Zion/Jerusalem is three things in Scripture:

| Mount Zion is: | Mount Zion is: | Mount Zion is: |
|---|--|---|
| It is the physical/spiritual location of Yahweh Himself - The Place of Yah's Throne | the physical city of Jerusalem located in literal Israel. | the saved people of Yahweh are called "Jerusalem" and "Zion" / "Mount Zion" |
| Psalm 48:1-2- The city of our God, in the mountain of His holiness. | 2 Samuel 5:7- The stronghold of Zion is the city of David. | Isaiah 51:16- (Yahweh) says unto Zion, Thou art My people. |
| Ezekiel 28:14- the holy mountain of God, in Heaven | 1 Kings 8:1- Jerusalem, the city of David is Zion (literal) | Psalm 125:1- They that trust in Yahweh shall be as mount Zion |

2. A _____ Stone _____ from Mount _____ Zion _____
destroys the Earthly Kingdoms

- Daniel 2:34 & 45 the stone is cut out of the mountain without hands (meaning that Yahweh forms the stone Himself)... the Mountain is Zion (His people)
- Jeremiah 51:20 Yahweh's people are His "battle ax" that He uses to break the pagan nations and establish His eternal Kingdom.

3. The 1335 Timeline – Daniel 12:12-13

- blessed - esher (H835) happiness (as interjection), how happy!
- waiteth - chakah (H2442) to adhere to... to await: - long, tarry, wait.
- cometh - naga (H5060) to touch, that is, lay the hand upon
 - Lexicon: to hold in your hands, that which has been promised

Session 58: "The 1335 and the Final 70 Weeks"

- For what do we WAIT (chakah)? – Isaiah 64:4 What Yahweh has prepared for the saved - which is greater than our wildest imaginations can grasp
 - Isaiah 40:31 They that wait (chakah) upon Yahweh will renew their strength and mount up on eagle's wings... run and not be weary... etc...
 - 1 Corinthians 2:9 Eye has not seen nor ear heart - so wonderful are the things that Yahweh has prepared for those who love Him.
 - Waiting involves OVERCOMING – Revelation 2:7 To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the Tree of Life, which is in the midst of the Paradise of Yahweh
 - What is the reward/blessing for waiting?
 - Revelation 22:1-2 to drink from the Water of Life and eat of the Tree
 - Revelation 22:14 they may enter into the Heavenly Jerusalem
4. According to Joshua 6:1-27, the walls of Jericho fell after Joshua's Israelite army marched around the city blowing their trumpets.

The first five books of the Hebrew Bible tell how Noah cursed Canaan to become a slave, and how God gave the land of the Canaanites to Abraham and his descendants. The children of Israel (descendants of Abraham) themselves became slaves in Egypt, but through Moses God brought them out of Egypt and to the borders of the promised land of Canaan. There Moses instructed them to seize the land by conquest, and placed them under the command of Joshua.

Joshua sent spies to Jericho, the first city of Canaan to be taken, and discovered that the land was in fear of Israel and their God. The Israelites marched around the walls once every day for seven days with the priests and the Ark of the Covenant. On the seventh day they marched seven times around the walls, then the priests blew their ram's horns, the Israelites raised a great shout, and the walls of the city fell.

The fall of Jericho is a spiritual parallel to the fall of Babylon
 One powerful parallel between the fall of Jericho and the fall of Babylon is the work of the Two Witnesses, known in the Jericho story as the two faithful spies.

5. What is the significance of two witnesses? Deuteronomy 17:6; Matthew 18:15-16 The testimony of two witnesses is required before a sentence of death can be given. When the two witnesses appear, judgment follows and it is the last chance for salvation.

6. In Yahweh's just Kingdom, final Judgment cannot be rendered without the work of two Witnesses. As only two of the ten spies were faithful, Scripture shows that two witnesses were sent unto Jericho before Yahweh rendered judgment against that great city.

In parallel, there will be Two Witnesses sent unto Babylon (the pagan world) as well, foretold in Revelation Chapter Eleven. It will only be after the Two Witnesses have given their testimony that ultimate Babylon will fall and the reign of the Beast will cease. Even at the End of the World, Judgment (Death) will not be rendered until the Testimony of the Two Witnesses has been heard.

7. The Final 2300 Days Ends on the Final Day of Atonement

- Daniel 8:14 - Unto 2300 Days - and then the Sanctuary will be cleansed
The Sanctuary is cleansed (Torah) on the Day of Atonement
 - Sanctuary - kodesh, a sacred place or thing... which is both Yahweh's saints (saved people) AND the Temple/building (Sanctuary)
 - Cleansed - tsadaq - to be (causatively make) right, to be justified and "justify self" (in a righteous sense) (God's people are exonerated)
- Lexicon: "cleansed" – Essentially, tsadheq is a legal term.
God is righteous (Psalm 51:4) and so are His Laws (Psalm 19:9). When injustice prevails, God is the One Who sets things right (Exodus 23:6-7; Psalm 82:3).

8. As we saw in our study of the 1260 Day timeline, the dragon will persecute the woman for 1260 Days (3.5 years) -
Revelation 12:13-14; Daniel 7:25; Revelation 17:6

- What does Yahweh do to those who persecute His people?
Revelation 16: 2 & 6 He plagues them for their wickedness and cruelty
It says He will give them blood to drink, for they are worthy (they deserve it)

9. In Scripture, not only is the pure woman used to symbolize the saved people of Yahweh, fish are another symbol of the saved.

- When we are baptized, the Bible says we are “born of water” (John 3:5).
- Also, “catching” the lost for the Kingdom of God is likened to catching “fish ”, so Christians are called “fishers of men” (Matthew 4:19; Jeremiah 16:16).

10. These same symbols are used in the original constellation shapes. For example, in the constellation Deli, which is the original Hebrew name for the Water Carrier – now called Aquarius. The heavenly Waterman Who is Christ, pours out a never ending supply of Living Water.

One of the decans of this primary constellation is a great fish, called Dag in Hebrew, but now known as Piscis Austrinus. This great fish constellation is drinking up the Living Water which pours forth from the Heavenly Pitcher (Numbers 24:7) In Numbers 24:7, the word “buckets” is translated from the Hebrew word Deli (deliyee), which is the name of this Water Man constellation.

- Deli (now called Aquarius, which is Latin for “the pourer forth of water”) is a beautiful star-picture which portrays the out-pouring of the Holy Spirit and the Truth of the Word, both of which are represented as “Water” (Isaiah 44:3 and Ephesians 5:26).
- Certainly, Messiah Himself was the Water-bearer when He spoke to the Samaritan woman at the well, inviting her to “drink” of the Living Water which only Heaven can offer. This is a spiritual Water—the Water of the Spirit and Truth—which brings us spiritual Life (John 4:4-26). It is this Water that is shown in this constellation.
- Without God, we are spiritually described as dry and barren, like a desert that is without water (Psalm 63:1). But, when we are spiritually alive and fully revived, we are represented as flourishing by rivers of water (Psalm 1:1-3).
- In Joel 2:28-29, God promises to pour out His Spirit upon “all flesh” (His people), bringing Life to souls who were spiritually dry and dead. This is the prophetic message and promise of Deli.

- Christ is the Source of the Water. So the hand of the water-carrier is lifted to Heaven to show that, as long as the carrier remains connected with Heaven, the Water will continue to flow forth through the life. As Messiah said in John 7:38, Living Water will flow out of the “bellies _____” – the innermost _____ being - of the believer. Every believer is to become the Water-bearer of Deli. This is the work of sharing the Gospel _____.

- Dag – the great fish constellation - is seen in the sky drinking up the stream of Living Water, as it pours forth from the Water-Carrier’s pitcher.
- Thus, we see a beautifully portrayed promise in Dag. God promises His faithful followers that there will be “fish _____” (souls saved _____) from their efforts and because of the Water of Life and Truth, which pours forth from their lives.
- In Revelation, our Saviour is portrayed as standing among 7 candlesticks. These seven candlesticks represent seven divisions, or groups, within the Church. These groups which make up the Church are: Ephesus, Smyrna, Pergamum, Thyatira, Sardis, Philadelphia, and Laodicea.
- But while seven groups are listed, Yahweh also states that He has “aught against” five of them – ultimately causing five of them to be removed.

- Ultimately, the woman – the faithful people of Yahweh, which is His Church – is divided into two groups in Revelation, which are the two saved churches of Philadelphia and Smyrna. Only these two churches are without blemish from among the original seven churches. Thus, the final Church of Yahweh is made up of only these two groups.

- The Synagogue of Satan is foretold to persecute both Philadelphia and Smyrna.
- Revelation 2:8-11 tells how the Synagogue of Satan will persecute the saints in Smyrna. This group of the saved is characterized by martyrdom.
 - “be thou faithful unto death” and Yahweh will give them a crown of Life. These faithful ones will be rewarded by their faithfulness in that the second death will not touch them.

Revelation 3:7-11 - The second group of the Saints will be the 144,000. These ones will endure persecution, but will not be killed. After the close of probation, when no more saints can be killed, the Synagogue of Satan will be made to worship before the feet of the believers in Philadelphia (144,000). Having passed through the persecution, this group will be living to see the King's Return.

The two saved groups of Philadelphia and Smyrna are portrayed in the constellations as two fish, as is shown in the God's Amazing Star Secret book.

The seventh of the cardinal constellations is two fish, both of which are tied by the tail with a band. As Ethelbert Bullinger explained in his book, The Witness of the Stars:

"The Hebrew name of this constellation (which is now called Pisces) is Dagim, the Fishes, which is closely connected with multitudes, as in (Genesis 48:16), where Jacob blesses Joseph's sons, and says, "Let them grow into a multitude in the midst of the earth." The margin says, "Let them grow as fishes do increase." It refers to the fulfillment of (Genesis 1:28), "Be fruitful and multiply." The multitude of Abraham's seed is...compared... to the stars of the sky... "A very great multitude of fish," as in (Ezekiel 47:9)."

As we have already seen, fish represent baptized Christians, who are spiritually born of water. There are two groups of believers – who are also called Israel - being represented in this constellation by the two fishes.

The band which binds both fish by the tail is connected to Cetus, the sea-monster. Through this connection, we may Biblically identify the two fish.

As we will see, these fish are the two groups known in Revelation 2 and 3 as Smyrna and Philadelphia. Philadelphia are the saved who are translated without death, shown in the fish that is rising upwards. Smyrna are the saints who die and are resurrected, shown in the fish lying down in the sky.

Since ancient times, the constellation of Dagim and its decans has been associated with the persecution and suffering of God's people. The first decan is the Band of persecution. It binds the two fish—representing the two groups of believers -those who are translated without seeing death – which is the group called Philadelphia - and those who are persecuted and die a martyr's death, which are Smyrna (advance slide). Notice that the band of persecution in the sky picture, binds the tails of both groups of fish to the dreaded sea monster, which represents the Synagogue of Satan in the sky.

Certainly, this is a sobering picture being portrayed in the heavens and in the Scriptures in the prophecies about the Synagogue of Satan. In the second decan of Dagim – the two fish constellation-, the troubling prophecy continues.

Khosharah is the second decan, which is now called Andromeda. This constellation portrays the Church as a woman—the Bride of Christ. She is seen here shackled in chains and in the throws of great suffering. The sky-message of this constellation family is also found in 2 Timothy 3:12, which says: “Yea, and all that will live godly in Christ Yahshua shall suffer persecution.”

Smyrna are the saints who are persecuted to the point of martyrdom (Revelation 2:8-11). This is why Smyrna’s fish appears to be lying down (in death) in the heavens.

The other fish, which is Philadelphia, are the saints who are also afflicted by the Synagogue of Satan, just like their sister church (Smyrna), but Philadelphia are not killed. In the Last Days, when the persecution is forever over, Revelation 3:7-9 tells us that the Synagogue of Satan will worship before the feet of those in Philadelphia. They are ultimately translated and are represented by the fish that is rising upwards in the heavens without seeing death.

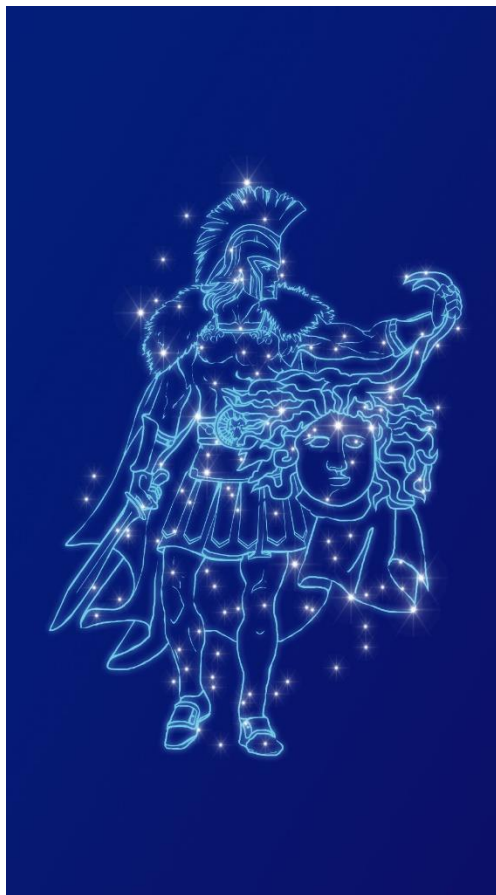

Both the sky-picture and Scriptures show that suffering is an expected right-of-passage which all who love and follow God will face at one time or another, to one degree or another. In fact, God’s people are told to expect suffering in our journey in this world (1 Peter 4:12). But even so, God does not want His people to be afraid.

Revelation 2:10 - Fear none of those things which will come upon you - but be faithful.

In the heavens and in Scripture prophecy, Satan is most often pictured as a serpent or a dragon. Since Livyathan has dragon aspects, one might assume that this constellation is depicting Satan himself. But Livyathan also has fish characteristics—and fish, in the sky represent those who have been baptized and supposedly belong to God.

But this group of so-called “Israel” truly belong to Satan! In fact, the persecutors of God’s true people is this group, who claim to belong to God. They claim to be “fish” but have the persecuting qualities of the devil (they have the character qualities of the dragon).

The group, who are called Livyathan in the sky, are known as the “Synagogue of Satan” in Revelation 2:9 and 3:9. This group “say they are Jews” — which is to claim to belong to Yahweh, being spiritual Israel. But the Bible says this claim is a lie. Not everyone who claims to be saved will be (Isaiah 10:22 and Romans 9:27).

Livyathan (Psalm 74:14) binds both fish by the tail _____ with the band of _____ persecution _____. But in this star-family, the persecution is halted. The time of the Breaker – the constellation Parats -has come, and the Bride of Christ suffers no more.

This decan foretells the moment when the Synagogue of Satan worship at the saints feet and know that God has loved them as the Bible says the Synagogue of Satan will do – Revelation

Now, with this understanding and back-story in mind, let’s look more deeply at the Synagogue of Satan, as we Scripturally unmask this false power.

So, let's look at the elements of the Bible prophecy on the Synagogue of Satan to gain a deeper understanding – Revelation 3:9

Let's begin with the name:

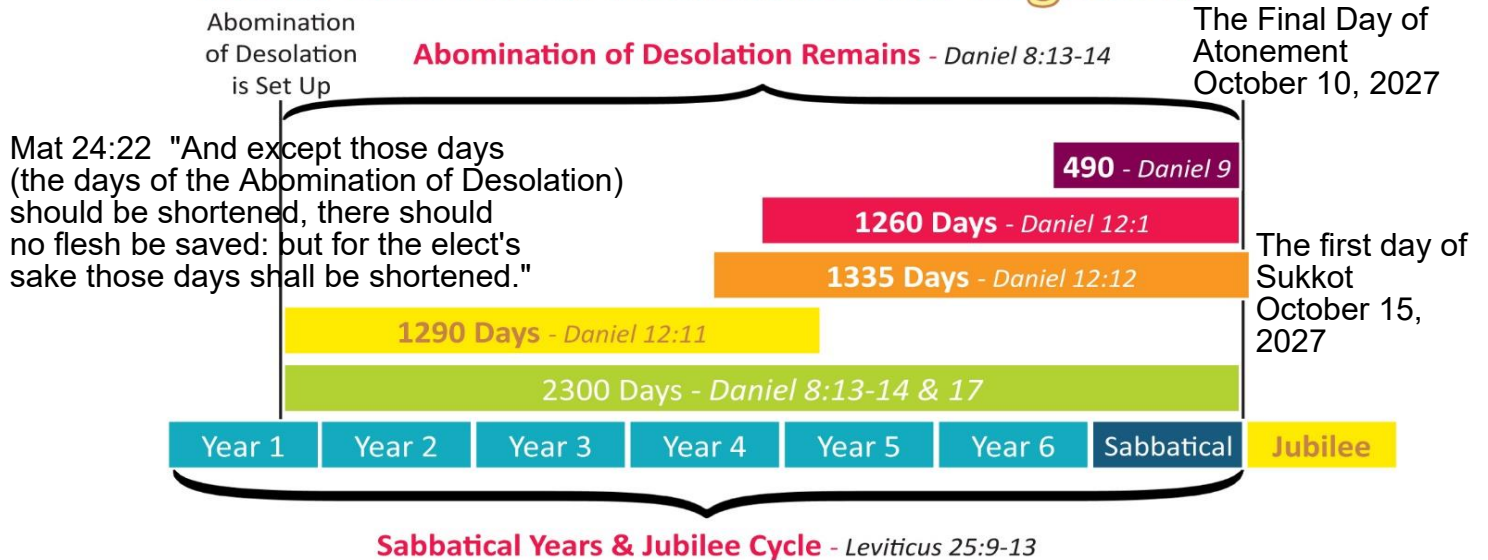

- Synagogue - assembly, congregation, synagogue, and church
- The first meaning of "synagogue" is "an assemblage of persons" – in other words it's a group! So the first key to identifying the Synagogue of Satan in the Last Days is that it is the Axis of Evil powers – the whole group of those who side with the dragon and participate in persecuting the Bride of Christ in the Last Days.
- The Synagogue of Satan is literally, those who claim to be Jewish (Ashkenaz)
- The Synagogue of Satan is also spiritually those who claim to be "saved" (they "belong to Yah")
- But the term "Synagogue of Satan" isn't only a group. It is also a place of worship – a literal synagogue! Since it is the synagogue of Satan – we know this place of worship will be a place where the devil receives worship instead of Yahweh.
- In other words, there is both a symbolic and literal synagogue of Satan. The symbolic synagogue of Satan is the TEAM of evil, including the Beast, the whore, the dragon, and all who side with him. But in a literal sense, the synagogue of Satan is his temple – the Temple which the Bible prophets warned would be built in the Last Days – and from which the final Beast power will reign as the ultimate Anti-Christ.

On the Final Day of Atonement, the Beast and his kingdom are broken – Revelation 11:15

What happens on the final Day of Atonement:

- The persecution ends
- The stigma (hatred) of Yahweh's people is removed
- The Beasts reign ends
- Matthew 24:14; Daniel 12:7 - The Gospel will have reached the whole World
- Revelation 11:1-4 - The two Witnesses will have finished their testimony

How the Final Timelines Fit Together

11. The 70 Weeks – Daniel 9:24-27

- Weeks - shebua (sevens) - literal or figurative weeks
- Three Layers of Fulfillment: (This timeline always marks the Messiah's arrival)
 - Layer 1 – Ancient Israel = figurative time (490 years) - from the literal command to rebuild Jerusalem in 457 BC and ended at 34 AD (490 years later)
 - Layer 2 – In the time of Messiah = literal time (490 days) - from the spiritual rebuilding of the Body of Messiah in 27 AD to the anointing (Pentecost) 28 AD
 - Layer 3 – In the End of the World = literal time (490 days) - from the spiritual building of the Temple (Yahweh's People) - final days of Judgement.

12. The 70 Weeks – Layer 1 - Daniel 9:24-27

- 457 BC – Artaxerxes issued a third decree (Ezra 7:12-26), carried out by Ezra, to start rebuilding the CITY of Jerusalem.
 - “The date (of the command to restore and build Jerusalem) is now firmly established as 457 B.C. by four independent sources...” Jonathan Gray, Ark of the Covenant, p 145 & 570
 - Greek Olympiad Dates - The records of the Greek Olympiad Dates give 457 BC as the 7th year of Artaxerxes' reign.
 - Elephantine Papyri - According to Persian historical records, Xerxes, the predecessor of Artaxerxes, died in 465 B.C. The Elephantine papyri from Egypt contain the first known date identified with Artaxerxes' reign, marking it at 464 B.C. – which makes his 7th year 457 BC

- Ptolemy of Alexandria - Ancient scribes recorded key events that took place. They kept these records by writing about them in stone and in papyrus and on animal skins. The main way the timing was given for the events these ancient historians wrote about was by the reign of a king. So, a given event was recorded as happening in a certain year of a king's reign. Dating was tracked by the dates of a king's reign. Discovering this, the astronomer Ptolemy of Alexandria, who lived in the second century AD, used the years ancient kings reigned to date important heavenly events. Ancient events in the sky - like lunar and solar eclipses - were dated by Ptolemy according to his listing of the ancient kings and the years of their reigns. Ptolemy collected all of these important dates and shared them in a written form which we call the Canon. Ptolemy's Canon shows that the 7th year of Artaxerxes was 457 BC.
- Babylonian Cuneiform – 7th year of Artaxerxes = 457 BC

$$457 \text{ BC} + 490 \text{ years} = \underline{34 \text{ AD}}$$

$$490 \text{ years} - 457 = 33 \text{ AD}$$

But there is no zero year...

3 BC... 2 BC... 1 BC... 1 AD... 2 AD... 3 AD...

$$(490 \text{ years} - 457 + 1 = 34)$$

13. Elements of the 70 Week Prophecy – Daniel 9:24-27

- Finish the transgression (Day of Atonement) - Leviticus 16:16
 - "...He shall make an atonement... because of their transgressions..."
- Make an end of sin (Atonement) - Leviticus 16:30
- Make reconciliation (Day of Atonement) for iniquity – Romans 5:8-11

- Bring in everlasting Righteousness - Luke 1:33; Hebrews 1:8
- The Commandment to restore and rebuild Jerusalem - the timing of Messiah's arrival is in this prophecy
- The building of the street and the wall
 - figuratively, the street is the "old paths" of righteousness (Jeremiah 6:16) and the wall is the "Law" (Torah) of Yahweh - Proverbs "He that hath no rule over his own spirit is like a city that is broken down and without walls" = the wall is the "rule" (the Law). This goes along with giving the final Elijah Message - which repairs the "wall" calling people back to obedience and into repentance and restores the old (righteous) ways of following Yahweh.
